The earnings of the Members in this chart are not necessarily representative of the income, if any, that a ForeverGreen Member can or will earn through his or her participation in the ForeverGreen Compensation Plan. Your success depends upon your skills, work effort, and market conditions. ForeverGreen does not guarantee any level of income or your success.

The income statistics above are for all ForeverGreen Members who were paid bonuses during the period from January 1, 2014, to December 30, 2014, at the above ranks, including the cash values of rank advancement bonuses, and recognition/award trips.

Income Disclosure Policy

ForeverGreen corporate ethics compel us to do not merely what is legally required, but rather, to conduct the absolute best business practices. To this end, we have developed the Income Disclosure Statement ("IDS"). The ForeverGreen IDS is designed to convey truthful, timely, and comprehensive information regarding the income that ForeverGreen Members earn.

In order to accomplish this objective, a copy of the IDS must be presented to all prospective Members. A copy of the IDS must be presented to a prospective distributor (someone who is not a party to a current ForeverGreen Distributor Agreement) anytime the Compensation Plan is presented or discussed, or any type of income claim or earnings representation is made.

The terms "income claim" and/or "earnings representation" (collectively "income claim") include: (1) statements of average earnings, (2) statements of non-average earnings, (3) statements of earnings ranges, (4) income testimonials, (5) lifestyle claims, and (6) hypothetical claims. Examples of "statements of non-average earnings" include, "Our number-one distributor earned XXX dollars last year" or "Our average 3-Star makes XXX per month." An example of a "statement of earnings ranges" is "The monthly income for 5-Star is XXX on the low end to YYY on the high end."

A lifestyle income claim typically includes statements (or pictures) involving large homes, luxury cars, exotic vacations, or other items suggesting or implying wealth. They also consist of references to the achievement of one's dreams, having everything one always wanted, and are phrased in terms of "opportunity" or "possibility" or "chance." Claims such as "My ForeverGreen income exceeded my salary after six months in the business," or "Our ForeverGreen business has allowed my wife to come home and be a full-time mom" also fall within the purview of "lifestyle" claims.

A hypothetical income claim exists when you attempt to explain the operation of the Compensation Plan through the use of a hypothetical example. Certain assumptions are made regarding the: (1) number of Members sponsored, (2) number of downline Members, (3) average product volume per distributor, and (4) total organizational volume. Cranking these assumptions through the Compensation Plan yields income figures which constitute income claims.

In any non-public meeting (e.g., a home meeting, one-on-one, regardless of venue) with a prospective distributor or Members in which the Compensation Plan is discussed or any type of income claim is made, you must provide the prospect(s) with a copy of the IDS. In any meeting that is open to the public in which the Compensation Plan is discussed or any type of income claim is made, you must provide every prospective distributor with a copy of the IDS and you must display at least one (3 x 5-foot poster board) in the front of the room in reasonably close proximity to the presenter(s).

In any meeting in which any type of video display is utilized (e.g., monitor, television, projector, etc.) a slide of the IDS must be displayed continuously throughout the duration of any discussion of the Compensation Plan or the making of an income claim.

Copies of the IDS may be printed or downloaded without charge from the web office library at www.fgxp.org.
